MEMORANDUMRe: Jane Gibson

It was suggested that Mr. Adolph Greenbaum, an officer of the Metuchen Realty Corporation, 206 Broadway, New York City, could give some valuable information regarding Jane Gibson.

Mr. Greenbaum is a man of about sixty years of age, conducting a Realty Corporation and has property being located in New Brunswick particularly in the vicinity of the Gibson farm. He has sold property here for many years. He knows of Jane Gibson, altho has had no dealings with her. He has sold several hundred lots to residents in the vicinity of Hamilton Avenue and understands that Jane Gibson's reputation is not favorable.

He heard about a week ago a woman to whom he sold a lot sometime ago and who lives near the Gibson farm, Mrs. Yankub, started across Jane Gibson's farm taking it as a short cut in order to go to a slaughter house near Voorhees Station where she wished to purchase some meat. Jane Gibson appeared and ordered her off her property. The woman proceeded to cut across the property. Obtaining her meat, she started to return in the same way. Mrs. Gibson appeared with a shot gun and fired at her. Greenbaum believes that she was wounded, altho this is not certain. He has no knowledge of this event, but suggests that the Yankub woman be interviewed. Also states that numerous people living in that vicinity could give a great deal of information concerning Jane Gibson, particularly one Brown who has a large farm at Girard Avenue near Hamilton Street. Brown's property is located between Hamilton and Berger Streets.
